

*Carnegie
Art
Center
December
Gallery
Talk 2014*

Memory of Water... a gallery talk with brian frink

Thursday, December 18, 5:30-6:30 pm

Afternoon in Marseilles, Brian Frink

Paintings emerge that reflect the sounds, light, mass and the constant slow movement of water from his 2012 artist residency at the Heliker-LaHotan Foundation, thirty miles of the coast of Maine. Join Brian December 18, for a gallery talk as he discusses the process and evolution of this body of work.

Brian's exhibition, "Memory of Water" runs December 4-20, in the Carnegie Art Center Rotunda, Cook and Fireplace galleries.

Cost: FREE

Call 507-625-2730 for more information

Location: Rotunda, Carnegie Art Center
120 South Broad Street, Mankato